The Aghlabids and their Neighbors

Art and Material Culture in Ninth-Century North Africa

Glaire D. Anderson, UNC-Chapel Hill, Corisande Fenwick, University College London (UCL), and Mariam Rosser-Owen, Victoria & Albert Museum

The first dynasty to mint gold dinars outside of the Abbasid heartlands, the Aghlabid (r. 800-909) reign in North Africa has largely been neglected in the scholarship of recent decades, despite the canonical status of its monuments and artworks in early Islamic art history. The Aghlabids and their Neighbors focuses new attention on this key dynasty. The essays in this volume, produced by an international group of specialists in history, art and architectural history, archaeology, and numismatics, illuminate the Aghlabid dynasty's interactions with neighbors in the western Mediterranean and its rivals and allies elsewhere, providing a state of the question on early medieval North Africa and revealing the centrality of the dynasty and the region to global economic and political networks.

READERSHIP:

All interested in the history of the Aghlabid dynasty and medieval North Africa, and anyone concerned with medieval Islamic studies and the medieval Mediterranean.
